The 2026 PRADA Dressage Show is a sanctioned competition of Alberta Equestrian Federation and Western Style Dressage Association of Canada and is governed by their rules. Every class offered herein is covered by their rules and specifications and will be held and judged in accordance with the same. Exhibitors, judges and show officials are responsible for knowledge of the rules.

General Rules and Information:

- The show committee reserves the right to decide any point not covered in the rules and to correct any error or make any alterations that may be necessary in the prize list. AEF and WSDAC rules and regulations will be followed.
- Inhumane treatment of a horse will not be tolerated. Violation of this rule, at the discretion of the organization committee, will result in disqualification and forfeiture of fees.
- Any exhibitor using a wrong number, or having no number, may be excused, or disqualified from the class, at the judge's discretion.
- Exhibitors are warned that any act of discourtesy or disobedience to the officials on the part of the owner, handler or rider, will disqualify the horse, and result in forfeiture of entry fees for subsequent classes. Show Management reserves the right to remove a groom, handler/ rider and/ or horse from the show, without being liable for compensation.
- No person other than officials, staff on duty, and the judges of the classes may enter the competition ring without permission of the Show Management. Competitors are allowed in the competition rings only when competing.
- Each competition horse will be assigned a number, which must be displayed at all times while the horse is on the show grounds.

The show committee reserves the right to remove any horse and/or rider from the competition at any time without being liable for compensation.

The show committee reserves the right to refuse, cancel, postpone, change, reschedule or combine any class or condition they deem advisable.
